

IB DP Geography – Unit 1: Changing population – Revision Clock

1 Physical and human factors affecting population distribution at the global scale

2 – Global patterns and classification of economic development (LIC, MIC, HIC)

3 – Population distribution and economic development - France

4. Population distribution and economic development - Ethiopia

5 voluntary internal migration, core-periphery patterns - France

6 voluntary internal migration, core-periphery patterns - Ethiopia

7. France - natural increase, fertility rate, life expectancy, population structure and dependency ratios

8. Ethiopia - natural increase, fertility rate, life expectancy, population structure and dependency ratios

9. The causes and consequences of forced migration and internal displacement – Venezuela (second case study is Bangladesh – climate change unit)

10. – Policies related to ageing societies & Pro Natalist policy (Denmark)

11. gender equality policies and anti-trafficking policies

12. One case study of a country benefiting from a demographic dividend